1.0 NAME, HISTORY AND LEGAL STATUS

1.1 The JU-JITSU INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION founded in 1987, hereinafter referred to as “JJIF”, is an international, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization, of unlimited duration, registered as a sports association under the Swiss law with the Handelsregister Des Kantons Schwyz.

1.2 In 1977, following a joint initiative from Germany, Italy and Sweden, the EUROPEAN JUJITSU FEDERATION (EJJF) was founded. Ten years later in 1987, when several more European Countries had become members of EJJF, the scope of this initiative was expanded to the worldwide scenario.

1.3 Accordingly in 1987, a foundation Congress of International Ju-Jitsu members was convened and the INTERNATIONAL JU-JITSU FEDERATION (IJJF) was founded, with the EJJF continuing its activity as one of the Continental Unions within the IJJF, under the new name of the European Ju Jitsu Union [EJJU].

1.4 In 1993 the IJJF was granted recognition as an International Federation [IF] by the General Association of International Sports Federations (GAISF) and in 1994 the International World Games Association (IWGA) admitted the IJJF as a member federation.

1.5 In the 1997 World Games [WG], Ju-Jitsu athletes participated for the first time in a worldwide multi-sport event.

1.6 In 1998 the Ju-Jitsu International Federation General Assembly was convened and in order to meet some public relations requirements towards further expansion and recognition, it was resolved to change the name of the Federation from the International Ju-Jitsu Federation (IJJF) to the Ju-Jitsu International Federation (JJIF). The name and the acronym of the federation will be copyrighted.

1.7 The present legal seat of the JJIF is at Freienbach, Switzerland,

1.8 The location of JJIF headquarters shall be as resolved by the JJIF Executive Board, which is empowered to change the headquarters to any other place in the world as and when necessary.

2.0 EMBLEM AND FLAG

2.1. The emblem of the JJIF is as follows:

Colours: red, black, blue, white.

2.2. The flag of the JJIF is the emblem on a white background.

2.3. The JJIF emblem and flag shall remain as the sole intellectual property and trademark of the JJIF and shall be copyrighted. The JJIF emblems shall not be used without the specific written authorization of the JJIF, which could be revoked by JJIF at any time. Only the JJIF may authorize the production or reproduction of its emblem, badges, medals, etc.

3.0 OFFICIAL LANGUAGE OF THE JJIF

3.1 English is the official working language of the JJIF. As the JJIF respects all cultures and languages of the world, its representatives from any of the affiliated member countries may speak or write in their own language, translated into English by an interpreter, at their own cost.

3.2 All the publications and reports of the JJIF shall be in in English. The proceedings of the JJIF Congress, JJIF Sessions, Executive Board Meetings and all JJIF Committee meetings shall be conducted in English.

4.0 MISSION, VALUES AND GOALS OF THE JJIF

4.1. The mission of the JJIF is to continuously develop, improve, promote and propagate the Ju-Jitsu values on a global platform.

4.2 The values of JJIF are as stated in the Ethics Code of the JJIF which is in full conformity to the Code of Ethics of the IOC and the JJIF and its member JNNOs shall:

Should there be such a request, the Executive Board shall convene an Extraordinary Congress within 60 days for such a purpose;
- To appoint an honorary President and other honorary members of JJIF with a simple majority vote of the delegates present and voting;
- To withdraw the status of honorary President and other honorary members with a simple majority vote of the delegates present and voting;

6.2.1 In the event of a tie in voting, the President has the additional casting vote.

6.3 Procedure for the Congress

- Prior to the commencement of the JJIF Congress, a commission made up of three (3) persons (proposed by the President and approved by the Congress) shall verify the credentials of each participating JJNO delegate; the same three persons shall also act as the ballot scrutinizers. These three persons must not be delegates from Countries presenting candidates for election during the same Congress.
- The JJIF President shall attend JJIF Congress and JJIF Session.
- Only items on the Congress agenda may be discussed at the Congress.
- Proposals for inclusion of items in the agenda must be sent to the JJIF Secretariat at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of the Congress.
- The JJIF President shall direct the Executive Board to prepare and convey to all member JJNOs, the Agenda for the Congress with the proposals submitted by its Members, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Congress, together with all relevant supporting documents.
- The JJIF Executive Board must approve the final list of items and the order of the discussions of the agenda.
- The JJIF President decides the number and the duration of the speeches allowed and allocated to the JJNO delegates.
- The sessions of the JJIF Congresses are private. External parties may attend the JJIF Congress subject to their specific invitation being approved by the JJIF President

7.0 THE JJIF SESSION

7.1.1 The JJIF Session is the Annual General Meeting of the members of the JJIF Representatives International Committee (JJRIC). It is the secondary supreme organ of the JJIF.

7.1.2 The JJRIC is constituted so as to ensure compliance with IOC guidelines, giving more opportunity to all member nations, from all regions, to have fair and just representation in the decision making process of the JJIF.

7.1.3 The JJRIC comprises of elected Representatives of the JJIF Regions, elected from the Continental regions for tenure of office of TWO years as further described herein

7.2 An ordinary JJIF Session is held once a year. Extraordinary Sessions may be convened by the President or upon the written request of at least one third of the members of the JJRIC.

7.3 The JJIF Session shall comprise of:

- The JJIF Executive Board Members with voting rights, who shall also have voting rights in the Session. However if there is a JJRIC representative present at the Session, who is a citizen of the same country as a JJIF Executive Board Member, then that Executive Board Member shall not have voting rights in that Session. This clause does NOT apply to the President of the JJIF Executive Board
- The JJRIC comprising of elected representatives of the JJRA who shall have voting rights and shall not exceed the maximum number of seventy-six (76) members.
- The representatives of non-governmental organizations associated to JJIF and fully recognized by JJRIC, without voting rights.
- The representatives of the JJNO's, who are JJIF full members, without voting rights, but with the right to speak if they are pre-registered in the speakers list.
- The representatives of the JJNO's, who are JJIF provisional members, without voting rights but with the right to speak only with the JJIF President's invitation and are pre-registered in the speakers list.

7.4 The powers of the JJIF Session are as follows:

- To adopt or amend the JJIF Technical Rules and Regulations;
- To decide on the host country /city, date and venue for the JJIF World Championships;
- To approve the annual JJIF program / calendar of events
- To decide the date and venue for holding an ordinary JJIF Session with the JJIF President having the authority to determine the country/city in which an Extraordinary Session shall be held;
- To approve and ratify the annual report, accounts and annual budget of the JJIF;
- To appoint the JJIF's auditors;
- To decide on the grant of full JJIF membership to JJNOs;
- To decide on the grant, suspension and removal of membership of JJIF members other than JJNO members, including Associations of JJNOs, Club Members and Individuals and other organizations;
- To resolve and decide upon all other matters assigned to it by law or by the JJIF Statutes.
- To ratify the decisions of the Executive Board wherever applicable

7.4.1. The JJIF Session may grant membership to a National Ju-Jitsu Organization or to a national sports organization whose activities are linked to or similar to the mission and role of the JJIF. The Session may also grant membership to any associations of JJNOs formed at regional or continental level.

7.4.2 All JJNOs and Associations of JJNOs shall have, wherever possible, the status of legal entities. They must comply with the JJIF Statutes, Rules and Regulations. The JJNO statutes are subject to the approval of the Session. The recognition of associations of JJNOs does not in any way affect the right of each JJNO to deal directly with the JJRIC, and vice-versa.

7.4.3 The JJIF Session will grant preferential recognition to a JJNO which promotes and propagates Ju-jitsu only and functions as the sole governing organization in its country and bears the name of Ju-jitsu in its appellation. The JJNO should exist as the sole recognized governing body of Ju-Jitsu in its country focusing primarily on Ju-Jitsu and not any other sports.

7.4.4 The JJIF Session may grant recognition to any non-governmental organizations connected with sports, operating on an international level, provided that their statutes and activities are in conformity with the Olympic Movement.

7.4.5 In each case as cited above, the process of determining and granting of provisional recognition / membership shall be taken up by the JJIF Executive Board.

7.4.6 Provisional grant of membership, or its withdrawal, shall be as decided by the JJIF Executive Board and subsequently ratified by the next JJIF Session. Provisional membership is granted normally for a maximum probationary period of two years only but may be extended at the discretion of the JJIF Executive Board, if so required.

7.4.7 The JJIF Executive Board may determine the conditions by which provisional recognition may lapse or be terminated subject to subsequent ratification by the next JJIF Session.

7.4.8 All details of recognition procedures shall be as determined by the JJIF Executive Board.

7.4.9 The JJIF Session can ratify any provisional suspension or disciplinary measures initiated against any Full Member JJNOs by the JJIF Executive Board.

7.5 Voting in a JJIF Session

- Decisions of the JJIF Session are taken by a majority of the votes cast by the delegates present and voting;
- Each member has one vote. Abstentions and blank or spoiled votes are not taken into consideration in the calculation of the required majority.
- Voting by proxy is not allowed.
- Voting is held by secret ballot when so required by the JJIF Statutes, or if the Chairman of the Session so decides or upon the request of at least a quarter of the members present. In the event of a tie in voting, the Chairman of the Session shall have the additional casting vote.

Bye-law to Rule 7

1. The JJIF Executive Board is responsible for the organization and preparation of all Sessions, including all financial matters relating thereto.

2. Notice of the convening of an ordinary JJIF Session shall be given to all JJIF members at least three months prior to the Session. The JJIF Session is formally convened by order of the President, Notice of convening an Extraordinary Session by the President shall be given thirty days prior, together with an agenda which must state the items to be dealt with at the meeting. If an Extra Ordinary Session is requested by 1/3 of the full members, it shall be so convened by the JJIF Executive Board within sixty days of such request.

3. The President, or, in his absence or incapacity, the Senior Vice-President chairs the JJIF Session.

4. All resolutions of the JJIF Session come into effect immediately, unless otherwise decided by the Session.

5. A matter which is not listed on the agenda of a Session may be discussed only if one third of the members so requests and only if the Chairman authorizes it.

6. Any matter of procedure concerning the JJIF Sessions and votes, which are not covered by the JJIF Statutes, are determined by the Chairman.

7. In case of any urgency, a request for a resolution or decision may be submitted to a vote by correspondence, including via fax or via electronic mail, to the voting members of the JJIF Session by the JJIF President or by the JJIF Executive Board. Such a resolution or decision shall be valid as if it has been passed at a JJIF Session where the resolution or decision is approved by not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the all voting members.

8. Minutes of all meetings and other proceedings of the Session are established under the authority of the President.

8.0 THE JJIF EXECUTIVE BOARD

8.1 The JJIF Executive Board shall initially consist of eleven (11) voting members:

- The President.
- The five (5) Vice-Presidents, one (1) of them in the position of Senior Vice-President appointed by the President.
- The three (3) additional members appointed by the JJIF President in consultation with the JJIF Vice-Presidents for each Continent. In appointing these members, the President shall take into careful consideration the skills, competencies, experience, gender balance and diversity of the Executive Board as a whole
- The two (2) representatives (one male and one female, each of different nationality drawn from different continents) of the JJIF's Athlete's Commission

8.1.2 Additional Executive Board members may be inducted as and when required, by a majority resolution of the JJIF Executive Board and ratified subsequently by the next JJIF Session.

8.1.3 No more than two members of the JJIF Executive Board can be citizens or permanent residents of the same country. This rule does not apply to the President of the JJIF.

8.1.4 On the recommendation of the President and ratified by the Executive Board initially four ex officio non-voting Members shall be appointed as under;

- The General Director; ex-officio, as a non-voting member;
- The Sports Director; ex-officio, as a non-voting member;
- The Administration Director; ex-officio, as a non-voting member;
- The Financial Director, ex officio, as a non-voting member;

8.1.5 The Executive Board shall also include the Chairpersons / Directors of such other Commissions as the Executive Board may decide who all shall be ex officio, non-voting members.

8.1.6 Additional ex officio non-voting Board members may be inducted as and when required, by a majority resolution of the JJIF Executive Board and ratified subsequently by the next JJIF Session

8.2 Executive Board Elections and Terms of Offices

8.2.1 The President of the JJIF Executive Board is elected by the JJIF Congress for a period of office of four (4) years, by a secret ballot, by a simple majority of the votes cast.

8.2.2 The five (5) Vice-Presidents are the corresponding Presidents of their respective JJCUs, duly elected by their General Assembly for tenure of four (4) years, and whose nominations are ratified by the JJIF Congress. In the case of any inability of any JJCU to elect the corresponding President for a post as Vice-President of the JJIF, the position shall remain vacant and the JJIF Executive Board shall consist of lesser members until the next JJCU elections.

8.2.3 The Senior Vice-President of the JJIF is nominated by the JJIF President from amongst the five (5) Vice-Presidents.

8.2.4 The three (3) additional Executive Board members are appointed by the JJIF President in due consultation with the JJIF Vice-Presidents, for tenure of office of four (4) years, and whose nominations are ratified by the JJIF Congress

8.2.5 The two representatives of JJIF's Athlete's Commission on the JJIF Executive Board are members elected directly by the JJIF Athlete's Commission for tenure of office of four (4) years, and whose nominations are ratified by the JJIF Congress.

8.2.6 The duration of the terms of office of the members of the JJIF Executive Board is Four Years. In conformity to IOC Charter [ Clause 19.2.3 ] , a member may serve for a maximum of two successive terms on the JJIF Executive Board, regardless of the capacity in which he has been elected. In case a member having completed two successive terms, he may be eligible to be re-elected as a member of the Executive Board only after a waiting period of two years. This does not apply to the election for the post of the Office of the President, for which there is no waiting period.

8.2.7 In the case of a Vice-President being unable to fulfill the duties of his office, another JJCU Vice-President in office replaces him by the majority vote of the Executive Board, until the Vice-President has recovered his ability or, if he is in a condition of permanent disability, until a new Vice-President is elected at the next Ordinary General Assembly of corresponding JJCU. This new Vice-President is elected for the rest of the four years' period.

For purposes of this Rule, a term means the period between two successive ordinary JJIF Congresses.

8.2.8 An Extraordinary JJIF Congress may be convened by the President or upon the written request of at least one third of the full member JJNOs.

8.2.9 The Executive Board must convene the Extraordinary Congress within (60) days after receiving such official request.

8.2.10 Minutes of all meetings and other proceedings of the JJIF Congress are prepared under the authority of the President and shall be communicated to all JJIF members in a timely manner.

8.3 Powers of the JJIF Executive Board

- The JJIF Executive Board adopts, enforces and implements the decisions and resolutions of the JJIF Congress and JJIF Session;

The JJIF Ethics Commission is charged with defining and updating a framework of ethical principles, including a Code of Ethics, based upon the values and principles enshrined in the Olympic Charter of which the said Code forms an integral part. In addition, it investigates complaints raised in relation to the non-respect of such ethical principles, including breaches of the Code of Ethics and, if necessary, proposes sanctions to the JJIF Executive Board.

The Chair and the members of the JJIF Ethics Commission are elected by the JJIF Congress, in a secret ballot, with a simple majority vote of the delegates present and voting;

- 1. The composition and organization of the JJIF Ethics Commission are provided for in its statutes.*
- 2. Any modification of the Code of Ethics, the statutes of the JJIF Ethics Commission and any other regulation and implementing provisions emanating from the JJIF Ethics Commission is submitted for the approval of the JJIF Executive Board.*

11.0 THE JJIF CONTINENTAL UNIONS (JJCU)

The JJIF recognizes five (5) Continental Unions with twenty-one (21) Regions as under:

- The Ju-Jitsu African Union, [ JJAFU ] with five Regions ;
- The Ju-Jitsu Asian Union, [ JJAU ] with five Regions ;
- The European Ju-Jitsu Union, [ EJJU ] with five Regions ;
- The Ju-Jitsu Oceania Union, [ JJOU ] with two Regions ;
- The Ju-Jitsu Pan-American Union, [ JJPAU ] with four Regions ;

11.1 All JJCU shall function as continental non-governmental, not-for-profit organizations, in the form of an association under the authority and leadership of the JJIF Congress of JJNOs, the JJIF Session of the Representatives International Committee (JJRIC) and the JJIF Executive Board.

11.2 Before the Statutes and Rules and Regulations of a Continental Union are considered to be valid or considered to have any effect, they must be submitted to the JJIF Executive Board for approval. The JJCU Statutes and Rules and Regulations shall come into effect only after the JJIF Executive Board certifies that these Statutes and Rules fully conform to the JJIF Statutes, JJIF Codes, Rules and Regulations.

Bye-law to Rule 11.2

The approval of a JJCU's statutes by the JJIF Executive Board is a condition for recognition. The same condition applies to any subsequent change or amendment to the statutes of a JJCU. Such statutes shall, at all times, comply with the JJIF Statutes to which they must refer expressly. If there is any doubt as to the signification or interpretation of the statutes of a JJCU, or if there is a contradiction between such statutes and the JJIF Statutes, the latter takes precedence.

The withdrawal or lapse of recognition of a JJCU entails its forfeiture of all rights conferred upon it by the JJIF Statutes, or the JJIF Congress or the JJIF Session.

11.3. The role of the JJIF Continental Unions (JJCU) are as under:

- To develop, promote and protect the fundamental principles and values of the JJIF in their continent in the fields of sport and education, in accordance with the JJIF Statutes, JJIF Codes, Rules and Regulations.
- To uphold and ensure compliance of the JJIF Statutes, JJIF Codes, Rules and Regulations in their continent;
- To encourage the development of high performance Ju-Jitsu events, technical and referee seminars as well as sport for all;
- To take action against any form of discrimination and violence in sport;
- To adopt and implement and enforce the JJIF Anti-Doping Code;
- To encourage and support measures relating to the medical care and health of Ju- Jitsu Athletes.

11.4. The JJCUs shall comprise of JJNOs which are already affiliated with and recognized by the JJIF. They shall hold a General Assembly of its members at least once a year, in accordance with the JJCUs' statutes. All JJCUs shall, in particular, include on the agenda of their General Assemblies the presentation of annual reports and audited financial statements and, as the case may be, the election of officers and members of the executive body.

11.5 The officers and members of the executive body of a JJCUs including elected representatives of Athletes' Commission shall be elected in accordance with the JJCUs' statutes, for a term of office specified by the JJCUs' statutes; they may be eligible for re-election.

11.6 Election results will not be ratified unless at least fifty per cent (50%) plus one vote are cast by the Representatives of the affiliated National Federations physically participating in the JJCUs' Electoral Congress.

11.7 Any Board member of a JJNO from the same Continent may apply to be a candidate in his own right for election to any position in the JJCUs Executive Board, provided that his candidature is supported by his JJNO affiliated to the concerned JJCUs. Proof of support for such a candidature from the concerned JJNO must be submitted in writing along with the candidature application.

11.8 Only Full Member JJNOs have the right to vote and nominate candidates to the elected positions in the JJCUs Executive Board.

11.9 The JJCUs must invite a JJIF delegate to observe its Electoral Congress. The delegate has the right to fully participate in the debate at the Congress. The host JJCUs must pay the travel and accommodation costs of the said JJIF delegate.

11.10 All JJCUs must preserve their autonomy and resist all vested pressures of any kind, including but not limited to any political, religious or economic pressures.

11.11 The JJCUs have the exclusive authority to sanction Continental events and to select and designate the country and the city which will host and organize Continental and Regional championships and events in their continent.

11.12 The JJCUs may organize and supervise continental Ju-Jitsu championships in all JJIF disciplines, in all age, gender and event categories. The organization of those competitions must be in conformity with the JJIF Statutes, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the JJIF. In these events the JJCUs have the authority to suspend competitors or officials for any misconduct and for any breach of JJIF directives, informing the country of origin of the persons concerned and the JJIF Secretariat, for consequent disciplinary actions.

11.13 The JJCUs cannot suspend or terminate the membership of any Member National Federations but may propose such action to the JJIF Executive Board.

11.14 The JJCUs can affiliate associations or other entities which are recognized by the IOC or by their Continental Olympic Committees and may take part in activities led or patronized by the IOC and by their Continental Olympic Committees, including continental and regional Games

11.15 The JJCUs can formulate proposals to the JJIF and participate in the composition and the activities of the JJIF commissions.

11.16 The JJCUs must submit a written annual report, including a financial report, to the JJIF Executive Board on their Ju-Jitsu developmental activities.

11.17 JJCUs can organize continental or regional events and issue Continental referee certification.

11.18 The JJCUs may issue continental Ju-Jitsu grading and continental black belts.

11.19 The JJCUs must inform the JJIF, not later than the 30th of June of the preceding year, of the dates and venues of their continental events for these to be included in the JJIF Calendar of the following year.

11.20 The JJIF National Members have the right to form Regional Ju-Jitsu associations under the authority of the JJCU and may organize regional Ju- Jitsu championships and seminars.

11.21. Other than the measures and sanctions provided in the case of infringement of the JJIF Statutes, Codes, Rules and Regulations, the JJIF Executive Board may take any appropriate decisions for the protection of JJIF's rights and interests in the continent of any JJCU, including suspension of or withdrawal of recognition of such JJCU, subject to subsequent ratification by the JJIF Session.

11.22 In particular, the Executive Board may suspend or withdraw the recognition of a JJCU subject to subsequent ratification at the next JJIF Session or JJIF Congress, if any laws and any regulations in force in the continent concerned, or any political act or other act by any governmental or other body impedes the independence of the JJCU or its activities or the expression of its free will.

11.23 The JJIF Executive Board shall offer such JJCU an opportunity to be heard before any such decision of suspension or withdrawal of recognition is taken.

12.0. JJIF REGIONAL ASSOCIATIONS (JJRA)

The JJRAs shall comprise of JJNOs already affiliated with and recognized by the JJIF, which are countries of a specified geographical or common interest region within a continent.

12.1 The countries constituting each region shall be as per Bye-law Rule 10.0. They shall hold a General Regional Assembly of their members at least once in every two years, in accordance with the JJIF's/JJCU's statutes. They shall include on the agenda of their Assemblies the presentation of annual reports and audited financial statements and the election of Regional Representatives members of the JJRIC.

12.2 Elections to serve as JJIF Regional Representatives shall take place once every 2 years on a simple majority vote of the members present and voting;

12.3 Only Full Member JJNOs have right to nominate candidates emanating from Full Member JJNOs for the elections of JJIF Representatives of Regions.

12.4 All members (Full and Provisional) have the right to vote for the elections of JJIF Representatives of Regions.

12.5 Every Region shall be entitled to ONE Full Member Regional Representative for every 3 JJNO. If any remainder JJNO arises in that region, then that region shall be entitled to one additional Full Member Representative.
